

Transitioning from the Military and Looking for a Job?

The SDMAC Foundation will be sponsoring a job fair for transitioning military members and their spouses during the WEST conference, February 12th. There's no charge for active duty military or their spouses to attend and meet with companies hiring our transitioning servicemembers and their spouses.

The Details:

- Our job fair will be held 1200-1400 following the formal end of WEST in Room 7A/B of the Convention Center.
- Transitioning military and their spouses welcome.
- Bring your resume and be prepared to discuss your future with company representatives from WEST and the San Diego region

If you're leaving the military soon, plan to be there!
